WEST PIEDMONT PLANNING DISTRICT
BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

WEST PIEDMONT PLANNING DISTRICT BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS – The Commission was created in 1969 pursuant to the Virginia Area Development Act and is a confederation of seven local governments established to plan for the orderly and efficient physical, social, and economic development of the region. The region encompasses the Cities of Martinsville and Danville, Town of Rocky Mount, and Counties of Henry, Franklin, Patrick, and Pittsylvania. The responsibilities of the Board include the development of an Annual Work Program to guide its staff in a wide range of activities including comprehensive planning, technical assistance, grant seeking, and regional coordination efforts. Other types of decisions made by the Board include establishment of regional priorities for the Virginia Community Development Block Grant Program and review and comment on requests for Federal funds made for projects within Planning District 12 through the Virginia Intergovernmental Review Process. The Board’s bylaws state that each governmental subdivision within the planning district shall appoint three members as follows: two members of the governing body and one non-elected resident qualified voter. Terms of office of members who are also member of governing bodies shall be coincident with their elected terms of office or such shorter term as their governing body shall determine. The citizen member shall serve for three years and may be reappointed. The Board meets on the fourth Thursday of each month at 7:30 P. M.

The Commission also serves as the West Piedmont Economic Development District Board. The Commission received designation from the U. S. Department of Commerce, Economic Development, as an Economic Development District in 1992. As an EDD, the District develops a Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy annually. The Commission staff develops applications for projects such as industrial parks, incubators, and utility lines. Finally, the Commission also serves as a Rural Transportation Organization (RTPO) in conjunction with VDOT, conducting various transportation planning-related activities.

WEST PIEDMONT PLANNING DISTRICT
TECHNICAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

WEST PIEDMONT PLANNING DISTRICT TECHNICAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

– The Committee advises the Board on matters of physical, housing, economic development, and human resources planning. The Committee also makes advisory recommendations to the Board in the review of applications for Federal funds under the Intergovernmental Review Process. In addition, the Committee is responsible for reviewing regional plans and documents as developed. The Committee provides citizen input in the planning process. Each local governing body appoints one member and one alternate member. Members serve three-year terms; alternates serve four-year terms. Both Member and Alternate may attend meetings; however, in the event both are present, only the Member will vote on issues. The Committee also has two at-large members representing the Planning District and appointed by the Board from nominations submitted by the local governing bodies of the Planning District. The at-large members are appointed to serve three-year terms as a voice for under-represented groups of the elderly, youth, poor, blacks, and women.
